MEMORIAL SERVICE: Wednesday, Sep. 21, 2011

Funeral Home: Porter Loring Mortuary

Fidel Joe Barberio, born in Laredo, Texas on June 10, 1922, passed away in San Antonio, Texas on Saturday, September 3, 2011 at the age of 89.

Fidel was a graduate of Brackenridge High School before enlisting in the US Navy where he proudly served his country during WWII. While serving in the Navy, he began a career as a Prosthetic Dental Technician which he continued to pursue in the Naval Reserves and private sector.

He met and married Mayme Diaz on June 10, 1945 until her passing in January 2006. Throughout their life they enjoyed traveling the United States with their two children.

Fidel also enjoyed reuniting with his Navy friends at their annual reunions. His sense of humor radiated to anyone who he met in life.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 62 years, Mayme Barberio and his parents, Adolph Barberio and Juanita (Gonzales) Barberio.

His memory will be deeply treasured by his daughter, Barbara Jo Barberio of San Antonio, Texas and his son, Adolph J. Barberio (Patricia Condon) of Seattle, Washington; granddaughter, Sonia E. Barberio of Seattle, Washington; brother, Ernest Barberio of San Antonio, Texas; his nephew, Richard and Velma Loukakis of Corpus Christi, Texas; and other family members.

The family would like to express their gratitude for the love and support they received from the nursing staff at Oak Park Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.
